2010 Quannon 150

The Quannon 150 is the sexiest KYMCO to date. This small displacement, entry level sport bike is ideal for an effortless ride. The lightweight Quannon is sure to fit perfectly into your urban lifestyle, is easy to handle and is equally light on fuel, insurance, and the environment. It is, on the other hand, loaded with great features such as a smooth five speed transmission, front and rear disk brakes for superior braking power, a digital instrument cluster, and 110/80-17 front and 140-70-17 rear tires for excellent stability and great grip. The 150cc 4-valve highly fuel-efficient engine has all the power you'll need to get you around town with plenty of fuel to spare.
